Commercial Lawyer (3-8 years PAE)

Since 1998, "Brownies" has established an enviable reputation as a boutique commercial law firm, specialising in commercial property, estate planning and commercial transactions.

We are looking for an enthusiastic, personable and service-oriented commercial lawyer to join our team and assist servicing our expanding client base. This new position presents a unique opportunity to become a key part of a developing business within South Australia's dynamic property industry.

A keen interest in commercial property law and practice is a must, whilst experience in other areas of commercial practice (e.g. Tax, Finance, Corporate), and/or in Estate Planning and Deceased Estate work, would be highly regarded.

Some existing client relationships would be preferred, but are not essential.

We offer strong mentoring from senior solicitors, highly experienced support staff, and all the advantages and opportunities which a small specialist practice provides.

Please forward your application to opportunity@brownies.com.au
All correspondence will be kept strictly confidential.
